Dear Arthur Ramsey,

Application for a work visa for:

Applicant:
Arthur Ramsey

Date of birth:
28 September 1984

Thank you for your application for a temporary entry class visa under work visa – Specific Purpose that we received on 10th December 2023.

Our assessment of your application

We have assessed your application and note that /you do not meet good character requirements for a temporary entry class visa.

The provision(s) in New Zealand immigration instructions A5.45 (copy attached) that affect you is A5.45 (a)(ii), which states that applicants who will not normally be granted a temporary entry class visa, unless granted a character waiver include any person convicted at any time of any offence for which they have been imprisoned.

Character

The Police Certificate from the Public Service of the Republic of France that you provided in your application dated 02nd December 2023, contains two convictions of common assault. The first offence dated 05th June 2006 carried a fine of $500 while the second conviction on the 09th December 2006 resulted in a fine of $1000 with a sentence of one week jail term.

Your second conviction resulted in your imprisonment. This would normally make you ineligible for a temporary entry class visa unless we waive the character requirement. We would like to invite you to provide comment or more information to help us to decide if your circumstances justify us waiving the temporary entry character requirement.
